*Be sure to include any required state or district courses such as: speech/communications, fine arts, PE, health, computer literacy/key boarding, etc.

*Texas public school students need to be sure that they meet the requirements of an endorsement.

*To be competitive at some schools, applicants will need to have 3+ years of a foreign language.

*Try to select electives related to what you want to major in at college.

*Consider taking higher level courses in the subjects you are strongest in.

*Consider taking a course during summer school to add flexibility or rigor to your schedule.
