Items in gold are key components of the application process where my marketing expertise is especially beneficial.

$595

Advising is limited to the pre-selected services. Add-ons are contingent upon schedule availability.

Package Reservation Deposit: $195
Balance can be split into (2) interest-free payments of $200 with a credit card on file.

Includes the following incentives:

- ✓ Customized Online College Application Planning Board (online & app)
- ✓ 10% Discount on all workshops offered to the public
- ✓ Phone/email/text support related to the targeted areas
- ✓ Convenience of Virtual Meetings

Please note: Although we will target certain areas of the application process, there is no guarantee that items will be completed within the time constraints of this package as student contribution and application load can vary widely. Review of a completed essay is considered (1) area to target. If ground-up essay coaching is needed, focus in other areas may be limited. Access to a personal application planning board with resources related to the general application process is included; however, if the online college list is selected above as a targeted area, key resources, checklists, and due dates for up to (6) universities will be added to the board for complete application management. The resume includes (1) version. Revisions after conclusion of package cost $50. This package offers students the exclusive right to book additional a-la-carte sessions at the conclusion of the package at $95/hour (as space allows). The months of August through October are high-demand, and space may be limited.
